

We want YOU to attend Wednesday Night Dinners and Programs @ LPC!

6:00 p.m. – Dinner is served
6:45 p.m. – Program begins

Wednesday night at LPC is the place to be for food, fellowship and fun! Enjoy a night out of the kitchen as chef Mike Succi and his Kitchen Krew plan and prepare your family's meal – and clean up afterwards – all for only $6.00!

Registration for dinner is needed by noon the Monday before the dinner – call the church office at 733-8055, email Suzanne@LPCjax.org or sign up on the Friendship Pad.

Each month's programs have a theme. Kid-friendly programs are designated with ☺. So kids, please bring your parents! Here are the programs for September and October.

September – God's World: Nature, Animals and People

- ☺ 7 A Culture of Caring and Kindness with Pets – Megan and Noodle the dog from the Duval County Humane Society.
- 14 A Culture of Conservation for our Native Environment and Animals – Jamy Rose from Tree Hill Nature Center.
- 21 Why Plant Florida Natives – Barbara Jackson, Duval County Master Gardener.
- 28 A Culture of Caring for God's children – Rev. Katie Robb's report on youth summer mission trips.

October – Tell Me a Story

- 5 The Stories Behind the Photos – Will Dickey, Florida Times-Union Photographer.
- 12 Up the River North Carolina – Roy Sharpe; stories of growing up in the mountains.
- 19 Coming to Florida from the Northeast – Clarence Willette, former minister of Assemblies of God and now a proud Presbyterian.
- ☺ 26 Poems and Stories for Halloween – Harolyn Sharpe; stories with interactive listening and playing.
- ☺ 30 Trunk or Treat – A Halloween extravaganza in LPC's parking lot!
